Special Student Policies:

Check each box below to indicate that you have read the following policies:

- Special Student registration does not constitute admission to CIIS. Students registered in Special Student status are not eligible to earn a degree or a certificate. Those seeking a degree or certificate must submit an Application for Admission.
- Should a Special Student later apply for and be admitted to a CIIS degree program, the maximum number of credit hours taken as a Special Student that may apply toward the degree's progression is limited to one-sixth of the credits required for the program.
- Credit hours taken as a Special Student may not apply toward a certificate program.
- Students registered in Special Student status are not eligible for financial aid.
- Special Student status remains active for one semester. Special Students must re-submit the Special Student Application every semester that they intend to register.
- Special Students must have their registration approved by the chair of the department or program in which the course(s) are housed, and are encouraged to bring copies of transcripts to help establish eligibility for enrollment when meeting with the chair(s).
- Special Students must have earned a high school diploma or GED to eligible to take undergraduate courses, and this diploma/GED must be declared on the Special Student Application. Special Students may take elective undergraduate courses only, not courses required for undergraduate cohorts.
- Special Students must have earned a bachelor's degree to be eligible to take graduate courses, and this degree must be declared on the Special Student Application. Special Students may take graduate course in audit status without having earned a bachelor's degree if permission is given by the program director in which the course is housed.
- Special Students are required to be in satisfactory academic standing to enroll and to remain enrolled. Evidence of satisfactory academic sanding is determined in the following manner, and students who fail to meet them are not permitted to register:
 - Undergraduate students: No more than two of any of the following combination of grades: C-, D+, D, D-, F, NP, NS, I, IN, or AW.
 - Graduate students: No more than two of any of the following combination of grades: B-, C+, C, C-, D, F, NP, NS, I, IN, or AW.
